

STUDY GUIDE

American Government Final Exam

political activities can people engage in pluralism
politics
social capital
natural rights
social contract
bill of rights
due process
Great Compromise
House of Representatives
Senate
3/5s Compromise
Article I of the Constitution
Article II of the Constitution Article III of the Constitution bicameral legislature
Articles of Confederation
The Executive
The words of the Preamble of the Constitution full faith and credit clause federalism
1st Amendment
13th Amendment
14th Amendment
15th Amendment
19th Amendment
26th Amendment
free exercise clause
establishment clause
elastic clause
Engel v. Vitale
Schenck v. United States
“clear and present danger”
Civil Rights Act
Higher Education Act, Title IX
Americans with Disabilities Act “exclusionary rule”
Tinker v Des Moines School District Gideon v Wainwright
standing committee
the minority party
the minority leader
the majority leader
the majority party

reapportionment
redistricting
gerrymandering
cloture
Speaker of the House
necessary and proper clause enumerated powers
checks and balances
legislative oversight
select committee
conference committee
revenue bills
succession for the presidency 22nd Amendment
State of the Union message 25th Amendment
executive branch
executive orders
pardons
amnesty
government corporation
regulatory commission
confirmation power
War Powers Act
impeachment
swing states
third party
independents
primary election
Political party platform caucus
party ticket
Election Day
moderates
liberals
Democrats
conservatives
Republicans